Ruth St. Denis Will Appear in Three Matinees

Novel Features in Program of Famous Dancers in L. A.

There are few artists whose personality has created such general interest throughout the country as that of Ruth St. Denis and Ted Shawn, who will appear in Los Angeles with their own company of dancers for a week's engagement beginning Tuesday evening, Dec. 23, at the Philharmonic auditorium under L. E. Behlmer's management.

Not less than three entirely different programs will be offered, together with three special matinees on New Year's Day, on Saturday, Jan. 5, and closing with a matinee on Tuesday, Jan. 6. The company comes to Los Angeles after a successful tour of three years covering England and the eastern sections of this country. The program promises to be one of colorful brilliancy, artistic to the highest degree—without suffering from highbrowism—blended with little bits of drama here and there and the necessary little fun, as presented in the six American sketches by Ted Shawn.

One of the outstanding features will be Miss St. Denis' music visualization, a novel symphonic dance interpretation that has aroused the greatest interest and comments in the world where art is treasured.

The whole presentation is American in spirit, radiating American ideas, impressions and creations, and besides has also an educational value which cannot be underestimated. American compositions by such well known writers as Cadman, Homer Grinn, MacDowell, Eastwood Lane, Carrie Jacobs Bond, and a score of others, are found on the program.

Their performances have always been a delight to the music lover; they have given to painters, sculptors and poets inspiration and delight, and to the public they brought real entertainment and relaxation. Thus they have fulfilled a threefold service as well as become an educational factor, for all of their costumes, settings and interpretations are meticulously presented after the manner of the country from whose art or folk-lore the inspiration for the dance has come.

Renn, Tomkins and Warren Hold Big Formal Opening

Renn and Tomkins are celebrating, in conjunction with Harry Warren, the formal opening of their spacious new market on Carson street, which is one of the largest markets south of Los Angeles.

The new home is four times as large as their former quarters, according to Mr. Renn, and the ten employees have over five thousand square feet of floor space in which to serve the trade.

Some idea of the size of the market can be obtained when it is realized that there are six manufacturers of food products holding special demonstrations today and tomorrow in honor of the formal opening. Among the demonstrators who are serving tempting bits to all comers are: Sperry Flour Company with their "Mother Sperry" serving home made biscuits and waffles; Holsum Baking Company; Kahn-Beck Company, handling out cookies and crackers; Unity Coffee Company, Roschell Butter, and the famous M. A. Newmark & Co. brands of fruits and vegetables.

Harry Warren is co-operating with Renn and Tomkins by conducting a special display and sale of Premium Hams. One of the other features of the Warren market is the supply of fresh poultry which Mr. Warren states will be on hand at all times, and kept in perfect condition in his big new ice box. The new refrigerator measures 10x12x13 and, according to Mr. Warren, is big enough to stock the fine new market is a monument to the ambition and capabilities of its three owners.

Walter A. Renn, Ray G. Tomkins and Harry N. Warren, as lads in their teens while working in the city and when they would be proprietors of institutions of their own.

Christian Church Sunday School to Observe Christmas

The Bible school of the First Christian church will observe Christmas Sunday evening at 7:30, giving what is called the "White Christmas" program. The little tots will have a large part in the telling of the story of Jesus, and the songs about the birth of Christ are among the most beautiful of all songs. A play will be given by the high school class under the direction of Mrs. Preston, which will depict the work being done by the church to help the needy, for whom an offering in money, food and clothing will be received. Our offering will go to the old people's home in Long Beach this year. You will enjoy this program, folks, and be better able to enjoy a merry Christmas after seeing and having a part in it. All are cordially invited.

Miss Mildred Perman, 2017 Carson street, arrived home Thursday from a two weeks' visit in Seattle, Wash.

BUSINESS MAN

Uncle John watched his nephew and some other little boys playing at soldiers attacking a fort. "Tommy," he said, "if you and your side can take that fort in half an hour I'll give you a quarter."

"About two minutes later there came an eager cry: 'Uncle, can I have that quarter now? We've taken the fort.'"

"That was very smart," said Uncle John, as he handed over the coin. "How did you manage it so quickly?"

"Oh, I just offered the other side a dime to give in," answered Tommy.
